

Essai Education

- Job Title- Senior Counsellor
- Number of vacancies- 02
- Job Description- Essai is an educational consultancy that seeks to broaden access to international higher education by helping talented Indian high school students navigate the process of US and UK university applications. We are currently looking for talented and motivated people who can join us as a Senior Counsellor, focusing on application essay support. The Senior Counsellor aims to provide instruction and support for the creative, narrative, and academic writing elements of college applications. The student engagement consists of one-on-one sessions that cover essay ideation, drafting, editing, and finalisation, culminating in the completion of the creative and academic essays needed for admission to top US and UK universities. Requirements include outstanding academic writing skills, interpersonal communication skills, and academic research skills. Past teaching experience is preferred but not necessary. English or social science background is strongly preferred. This is a job for a creative multi-tasker and academic 'people person' who loves talking, thinking, and writing.
- Location- New Delhi
- Compensation- 9.6 Lakhs Per Annum (Onwards)
- Other benefits- Generous holidays, free lunch, kitchen access, genial work environment